PART 1 – The Wealth Network

Why am I receiving this document?

You are considering using the services of a financial advice practice which is an authorised representative of The Wealth Network.

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) will help you decide whether to use the services offered. This document comes in two parts.

Part 1 contains information about:

- The Wealth Network
- Fees and charges
- Any conflicts of interest which may impact the services
- Complaints handling
- Your Privacy

Part 2 contains information about

- Your financial advice practice and financial adviser(s)
- The services offered and their cost
- Financial adviser remuneration

The Wealth Network

The Wealth Network Pty Ltd holds an Australian Financial Services Licence (403895) which has been issued by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) and authorises The Wealth Network and its representatives to provide Personal Financial Advice. The Wealth Network has approved the distribution of this FSG by your adviser.

The Wealth Network is required to comply with the obligations of the Corporations Act and the conditions of its licence. This includes the need to have adequate compensation arrangements in place with a Professional Indemnity insurer that satisfies the requirements imposed by s912B of the Corporations Act for the financial services that it and its representatives provide.

Documents you may receive

If we provide advice involving a financial product or service, it will be documented in a Statement of Advice which you can take away and read. The Statement of Advice will explain the basis for our advice, why the advice is in your best interest, the cost to you of implementing the advice, and any commissions or associations which could have influenced the advice.

If we provide further advice it may be documented in a Statement of Advice (SoA) or a Record of Advice (RoA) which we retain on file. We will keep a record of any further personal advice we provide you for seven years. You can request a copy of the advice document at any time during that period.

Where we recommend you use a financial product, we will provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). The PDS contains information to help you understand the features of the recommended product, such as its benefits and risks as well as the costs you will pay the product provider.

Fees and Charges

All fees and commissions payable for the service you receive from an authorised representative of The Wealth Network are payable to The Wealth Network and then distributed to the financial advice practice. There are no commissions or fees payable to staff directly for any advice or service delivered.

A Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS) will be issued to you in instances where you enter into an Ongoing Fee Arrangement with your adviser for a period greater than 12 months. The FDS will contain information about the services you received and the fees you paid during the period.

A Renewal Notice will be issued every 2 years if you have entered an ongoing fee arrangement. The Renewal Notice will give you the option of renewing the ongoing fee arrangement. If you do not renew your service, the ongoing service and fee will cease.

Staff receive a salary and may receive bonuses and other benefits from time to time. Bonuses and other benefits are subject to factors such as company performance and the performance of the individual employee. However, these bonuses and other benefits are a minority portion of their remuneration and are at no additional cost to you.

Referral Fees

In some situations, your adviser may receive fees or commissions where you are referred to an external party. You will be advised of the referral arrangement whenever you are referred to an external party.

Commissions

Your adviser may receive commissions from some product and service providers. The commission will vary depending on the product or service which is recommended. You will be advised of the expected amount in the statement of Advice (SoA) or Record of Advice (RoA).

Non-Monetary benefits

Advisers may receive additional benefits by way of sponsorship of education seminars, conferences or training days. Details of any benefits receive above $300 will be maintained on a register which is available to you on request.

Conflicts of Interest

Potential conflicts of interest may occasionally arise. The Wealth Network maintains a register for these circumstances, which you can view at any time. You will be advised in Part 2 of this FSG and your SOA or ROA if the authorised representative has any associations that may be capable of influencing the advice and how this will be managed.

Complaints handling

The Wealth Network and its representatives endeavour to provide you with appropriate advice and service at all times. If you are not satisfied with our services, then we encourage you to contact your financial adviser. Your adviser's individual details will be displayed on your Statement of Advice that you received as part of the advice process and in Part 2 of this FSG.

If after speaking your financial adviser, your complaint is not resolved within three business days, please contact the Complaints Manager:

- Financial Planning and strategy advice

Your adviser can liaise with your other professional advisers. We are not, however, accountants, nor are we tax advisers or lawyers but we are authorised to give tax (financial) advice.

The financial advice processes

Pivot Wealth recognizes that the objectives and personal circumstances of each client are different. When providing advice, we will follow the process outlined below:

- Ask questions to understand your circumstances, objectives and concerns
- Collect and update your data
- Analyze the information you provide us and Investigate the subject matter
- Devise a range of solutions
- Present our findings or recommendations to you and answer your questions

Services Provided and Fees Charged

Your first phone call with us is complimentary and obligation free. From this discussion we will set out the services we can provide and the cost.

If you are seeking strategic financial planning advice, we will quote you a fee for the completion of this work. The fee will be determined by the scope and complexity of advice provided to you. The fee includes all meetings with you, the time we take to determine our advice, the production of SoA's and the implementation of our advice. If we manage an investment portfolio for you, we may charge you a fee as a percent of the funds we manage for you.

We will agree the fee with you before commencing any work and full details will be provided to you in the SoA. Our fees begin at $3,300 (Including GST).

Commissions

Pivot Wealth works with new clients on a fee only basis and does not accept any sales commissions. For existing clients or new clients with existing products, commission may be received.

A commission is a payment to Pivot Wealth from a Product Provider which is determined by the Product Provider. Pivot Wealth may receive monthly commission payments for as long as you continue to use the product or service. The commission amounts vary based on the product provider and will be disclosed in full as part of any advice you are provided.

If we receive an ongoing insurance commission the range will be from 0-33%. For example, if your insurance premiums are $1,000 p.a., we may receive an ongoing commission of 25% of the premium or approximately $250 p.a. These commissions cover the ongoing service to help you with any future insurance queries, assistance or claims.
