The Wealth Network is required to comply with the obligations of the Corporations Act and the conditions of its license. This includes the need to have adequate compensation arrangements in place with a Professional Indemnity insurer for the financial services that it and its representatives provide.

FEES AND CHARGES

All fees and commissions payable for the service you receive from an authorised representative of The Wealth Network are payable to The Wealth Network and then distributed to the financial advice practice. There are no commissions or fees payable to staff directly for any advice or service delivered.

A Fee Disclosure Statement (“FDS”) will be issued to you in instances where you enter into an Ongoing Fee Arrangement with your adviser for a period greater than 12 months. The FDS will contain information about the services you received and the fees you paid during the period.

A Renewal Notice will be issued every 2 years if you have entered an ongoing fee arrangement. The Renewal Notice will give you the option of renewing the ongoing fee arrangement. If you do not renew your service, the ongoing service and fee will cease.

Staff receive a salary and may receive bonuses and other benefits from time to time. Bonuses and other benefits are subject to factors such as company performance and the performance of the individual employee. However, these bonuses and other benefits are a minority portion of their remuneration and are at no additional cost to you.

REFERRAL FEES

In some situations, your adviser may receive fees or commissions where you are referred to an external party. You will be advised of the referral arrangement whenever you are referred to an external party.

COMMISSIONS

Your adviser may receive commissions from some product and service providers. The commission will vary depending on the product or service, which is recommended. You will be advised of the expected amount in the statement of Advice (SoA) or Record of Advice (RoA).

NON-MONETARY BENEFITS

Advisers may receive additional benefits by way of sponsorship of education seminars, conferences or training days. Details of any benefits receive above $300 will be maintained on a register which is available to you on request.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Potential conflicts of interest may occasionally arise. The Wealth Network maintains a register for these circumstances, which you can view at any time. You will be advised in your SOA or ROA where a conflict of interest may exist and how the conflict will be managed.

COMPLAINTS HANDLING

The Wealth Network and its representatives endeavour to provide you with appropriate advice and service at all times. If you are not satisfied with our services, then we encourage you to contact your financial adviser. ### Services Provided and Fees Charged

Your first phone call with us is complimentary and obligation free. From this discussion we will set out the services we can provide and the cost.

If you are seeking strategic financial planning advice, we will quote you a fee for the completion of this work. The fee will be determined by the scope and complexity of advice provided to you. The fee includes all meetings with you, the time we take to determine our advice, the production of SoA's and the implementation of our advice. If we manage an investment portfolio for you, we may charge you a fee as a percent of the funds we manage for you.

We will agree the fee with you before commencing any work and full details will be provided to you in the SoA. Our fees begin at $3,300 (Including GST).

Commissions

Pivot Wealth works with new clients on a fee only basis and does not accept any sales commissions. For existing clients or new clients with existing products, commission may be received.

A commission is a payment to Pivot Wealth from a Product Provider which is determined by the Product Provider. Pivot Wealth may receive monthly commission payments for as long as you continue to use the product or service. The commission amounts vary based on the product provider and will be disclosed in full as part of any advice you are provided.

If we arrange insurance for you, we may be paid a commission by the insurance company. This can range rate between 0% - 66% of your annual premium as an initial payment and between 0% and 33% of your annual premium. For example, if the premiums are $1,000 pa, we will receive approximately $660 (66%) in the first year and approximately $220 pa (22%) thereafter. All commissions will be fully disclosed to you in a Statement of Advice before you proceed with any insurance recommendations. These commissions cover the initial cost of our assistance and ongoing service to help you with any future insurance queries, assistance or claims.
